

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to require their stations to air an anti-Kerry 'documentary' days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and the 'above the law' mentality of those whose money allows them to escape punishment in our country.

If Sinclair airs a partisan documentary right before the election, without an agreement between both candidates to each produce and air a pre-election documentary on Sinclair's network of stations, then Sinclair should lose their broadcast licenses to Kerry, the person they are intentionally trying to damage by their actions.

Thank you.
